

Judge Patti Oppenheim

District Judge, Division “K”

22nd Judicial District Court

Judge Patti Oppenheim is the District Judge for Division “K” of the Twenty – Second Judicial District Court and is one of our two judges who handles cases in St. Tammany and Washington Parishes dealing with family law, including divorces, custody, child support, spousal support and community property. She is also the district court judge who handles the appeals of all of our child support enforcement cases for both parishes.

She is a Board-Certified Family Law Specialist and has been a part of the 22nd JDC’s Family Court since its inception in 2009.

Judge Oppenheim is the chair of the Louisiana State Bar Association’s Self-Represented Litigant Committee and reports directly to the Access to Justice Commission. She serves on the Board of Directors for the Louisiana Judicial College and is the immediate past-president of the Louisiana Chapter of the Association of Family and Conciliation Courts.

In her downtime, Judge Oppenheim loves to ride her bicycle, is an avid reader, and volunteers her musical talent to her congregation.
